

Moving America Forward: Innovators Lead The Way To Unlocking Americas Potential

Moving America Forward: Innovators Lead the Way to Unlocking Americas Potential is a briefing book intended for candidates and policymakers at all levels of government who aspire to unlock the potential of all Americans and make our nation, once again, the land of opportunity. The transformational ideas presented in this book grew out of the experiences of social innovators in the America Forward Coalition who are solving Americas biggest problems in communities across the country every day. Their insights shaped the ideas presented in Moving America Forward and offer a wealth of opportunities for policymakers to scale local results into national impact.
