Genealogists have long considered Volume 10 of this eighteen volume series to be the most important, as it contains all of the passenger lists of the Salzburger arrivals in Georgia in the 1730s. This new Picton Press edition index adds all 1,395 names in the passenger lists to the index, making them readily available to you for the first time. All genealogists interested in 18th century German-speaking immigrants will want a copy, as will libraries whose collection lack this long out-of-print volume.
